

Our New President

Obama is the first African-American president. His daughters are Malia and Sasha. President Obama is the 44th President. Obama was born in Hawaii. Sasha is 7 and Malia is 10. He used to be a lawyer. Obama met Michelle in Chicago.

Obama is a very good president. He wants to stop the war because he wants peace. I think that people will die if there are wars so this is a very good thing.
