Sophie is a 7 year old girl. She loves fashion except she can't afford enough money to go to New York City so she can learn fashion. [This is a secret don't tell anyone] Sophie has bad luck, she spilled milk on the floor and slipped on it, she tripped over a wooden leg and fell off a chair. Sophie didn't want bad luck anymore.

Then one day Sophie went to pick out flowers, it was raining but when the rain stopped a beautiful rainbow appeared. After that there was a leprechaun standing right in front of her. The leprechaun told Sophie that he would help her get good luck and money so the leprechaun took Sophie to a garden of 3-leaf clovers. The leprechaun said to Sophie to sit for 5 minutes with her eyes closed and so she did. When she opened her eyes she saw a very rare 4-leaf clover but she didn't see the leprechaun but she knew the leprechaun left the 4-leaf clover for her, so she took it because she knew it meant good luck, and she was right. Her parents raised enough money to send Sophie to New York so she can learn more about fashion. Sophie was very happy it was her best
